Dispute Resolution

Dispute resolution has been a core area of practice throughout the development of JunHe. With the expansion of our practice areas and growing of demands from our clients, JunHe's dispute resolution team has shifted from focusing solely on the provision of traditional litigation and arbitration services to providing a full-range of dispute resolution services, including Multilateral Development Banks (MDBs) Compliance and Investigation, FCPA investigations, internal corporate compliance investigations and bankruptcy practice.

Our Team

JunHe's dispute resolution team consists of more than 90 lawyers, including more than 20 partners. All of our attorneys graduated from top law schools both at home and abroad and many were ex-judges or recruited from leading litigation firms. Our litigators have extensive experience appearing before courts at various levels and well-known arbitration tribunals, and offer clients an in-depth understanding of the Chinese legal system and judicial practice. Some of our partners regularly serve as arbitrators with the world's most prestigious arbitration institutions and have significant experience in international commercial arbitration.

Our team includes many lawyers who are qualified to practice concurrently in China as well as in the U.S., Hong Kong and other jurisdictions. The team works in multiple languages including Chinese, English, French and Japanese. We provide clients with high quality dispute resolution services that span borders, languages and industries.

Due to our outstanding performance and word-of-mouth recommendations, our dispute resolution team is consistently recognized by well-known law firm rating agencies (including Chambers Asia-Pacific, Asia Pacific Legal 500, and Asia Law & Practice) as a "Band 1" or "Top-tier Recommendation" law firm in the legal practice of dispute resolution in Mainland China.

Key Practice Areas

- Arbitration practice, including domestic and foreign-related arbitration proceedings, international arbitration (including serving as expert witnesses on Chinese law), and recognition and enforcement of overseas arbitral awards in China;

JunHe, founded in Beijing in 1989, is one of the first private partnership law firms in China. Since its establishment, JunHe has grown to be one of the largest and most recognized Chinese law firms. The firm has thirteen offices around the world and a team comprised of more than 800 professionals, including over 240 partners and legal counsel, as well as over 560 associates and legal translators.

Its (JunHe's) expertise in litigation and international arbitration attracts an array of work from multinationals and state-owned enterprises.
