Professional Experience

Mrs. Mu Xiangying graduated from China University of Political Science and Law and worked in the Qingdao Municipal Bureau of Justice in the first batch of selected graduates in Qingdao. In 2001, she worked as a professional lawyer in Shangdong Ya & Tai Law Firm and was gradually promoted to a senior partner. In 2017, Mrs. Mu joined JunHe and works in JunHe's Qingdao office.

Mrs. Mu focuses on corporate regulation and governance, M&A, and financing, and has represented clients in several bankruptcy and liquidation cases. She qualified as an individual manager for bankruptcy enterprises by the Shandong High People's Court in 2016. With the advance of rule of law in China, Mrs. Mu has focused on litigious and non-litigious legal affairs in the rule of law in the government. She has provided quality legal services to governments at the municipal level and district level, as well as various public institutions in Qingdao.

During her practice, Mrs. Mu was recognised by the Ministry of Justice as an Advanced Individual in national legal aid work in 2011. She was awarded by the Qingdao Municipal Bureau of Justice as an Advanced Individual in judicial and administrative institutions, an Outstanding Party Member in the Municipal Bureau of Justice, an Outstanding Staff Member in Party Affairs, and an Outstanding Municipal Lawyer. She was also named in the list of "Third Term Top Ten Women Lawyers and the National March 8th Red-Banner Pacesetters in Qingdao" by the Municipal Women's Federation and the Municipal Political and Legal Affairs Committee and other institutions.
