Professional Experience

Mr. Liu joined JunHe in 2010 and has been based in Beijing Head Office. Before joining JunHe, he had been working with the commercial trial chamber of Beijing Haidian District People's Court as a judge for 9 years.

During his duty on the bench, Mr. Liu focused on the adjudication of commercial cases, especially on disputes over company equities, insurance, security, bankruptcy liquidation and other kinds of complex commercial contracts. The first bankruptcy reorganization case and the first company dissolution case in China were both ruled by him. He also has multiple cases selected into prestigious law journals such as Yearbook of PRC Judgments.

After joining JunHe, Mr. Liu is mainly engaged in litigation and arbitration. He specializes in dispute resolution on cases with respect to product liability, construction project, company equities and JV contract. Mr. Liu also advises on general corporate matters for transnational companies and major enterprises, and has extensive experience in enterprise compliance management, legal risk assessment for major projects, as well as resolution of potential disputes.
