Professional Experience

Lan is a counsel at JunHe's New York office. Prior to joining JunHe in 2014, Lan worked as an in-house counsel in the New York office of the Macquarie Group. Prior to joining Macquarie, Ms. Lou worked for seven years as a corporate attorney at two leading U.S. law firms (Davis Polk & Wardwell and Baker & McKenzie LLP).

Lan's practice focuses on capital markets, venture capital, private equity and M&A transactions involving China. She has extensive experience in designing transaction structures, leading legal due diligence and negotiating transaction documents. On many occasions, Lan has acted as the point person dealing with U.S. regulators.

Lan has represented many Chinese clients doing business in the U.S., including some of China's largest state owned enterprises and banks.
