

HU, Xiaohong

Partner

Tel: +86 21 2208 6325
Fax: +86 21 5298 5492
E-mail: huxh@junhe.com

Practice Areas:

Dispute Resolution
Regulatory Compliance
Restructuring and Insolvency

Professional Experience

Mr. Hu is a partner at JunHe and currently practices at our Shanghai office.

He is a seasoned litigator with around ten years of experience and is a recognized expert on PRC-related dispute resolution in the Asia Pacific region.

Mr. Hu has a deep understanding of complex PRC disputes and handles PRC court litigation for both domestic and international clients. He has extensive experience in handling arbitration cases for international and domestic clients before CIETAC, SHAC and other domestic and international arbitration institutions.

Before joining JunHe, Mr. Hu served as a senior judge for over seven years at the Shanghai Higher People's Court.

Mr. Hu has authored and co-authored many books, including Studies on Various Complicated Issues Regarding PRC Company Law, The Reform and Improvement of Summary Procedures Regarding PRC Civil Procedure, The WTO and the Reform of the PRC Legal System, Studies on the Improvement of Retrial Procedures in Regard to the PRC's Civil Procedures, and Some Aspects Regarding Foreign Economic Laws of the PRC, as well as numerous essays related to litigation practice.

Education

J.D., Wuhan University School of Law, 2000

LL.B., Southwestern University of Politics and Law Science, 1995

Professional Associations

Mr. Hu is a member of the All-China Bar Association.

Language Skills

Fluent in Mandarin and English.