Private Client Practice

Personal wealth in China has grown rapidly over the last few decades and more attention has been paid to the preservation and growth of personal wealth and estate planning. JunHe's private client team helps people plan for the corporate governance of family business and the management of assets. We help build a firewall between individual and corporate assets to prevent risks and we also design customized estate planning. JunHe's experienced team offers advice in disputes regarding marriage, family and inheritance.

Our Team

Our private client team consists of partners and associates from many different areas. Our valued clients benefit from the rich experience of our team of more than 1,000 professionals specializing in corporate and M&A, capital markets, banking and finance, compliance, tax law, labor law, intellectual properties and dispute resolution throughout our 12 offices within and outside China. We collaborate with leading professional service agencies in private client practice from various overseas countries and regions. We leverage our rich international experience and our thorough understanding of Chinese law to provide domestic and overseas wealth management and estate planning services.
