

HAO, Tian

Partner

Tel: +86 10 8540 8720
Fax: +86 10 8519 1350
E-mail: haot@junhe.com

Practice Areas:

Civil and Commercial Litigation
International Arbitration

Professional Experience

Ms. Hao Tian is a partner in JunHe's Beijing office. She specializes in handling corporate disputes including equity transfer disputes, corporate control disputes, disputes over damage to company interests and shareholder derivative actions. Ms. Hao also has experience in disputes over the return of corporate seals and licenses, disputes related to valuation adjustment mechanisms and performance compensation, and financial loan disputes.

Ms. Hao has represented clients in civil and commercial dispute cases before the Supreme People's Court, the high people's courts and the lower courts in Beijing, Shanghai, Guangdong, Jiangsu, Shandong, Zhejiang, Hebei, Shaanxi, Gansu and other provinces and municipalities. She has represented clients before the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC), the Beijing Arbitration Commission (BAC), the Shanghai International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (SHIAC) and the Wuhan Arbitration Commission (WHAC). A dispute on behalf of a Cayman Islands company represented by Ms. Hao concerning liability for damage to shareholder interests was subject to first-instance jurisdiction of the Second International Commercial Court of the Supreme People's Court, due to its significant impact and typical significance. Her professional capabilities have been recognized by her clients and the wider legal industry.

Ms. Hao has also provided perennial legal counsel, special legal advisory services and other legal services to dozens of large state-owned enterprises and their subsidiaries, listed companies, and private enterprises.

Ms. Hao previously served as a member of the Litigation Business Research Committee of the Chaoyang District Lawyers Association.

Education

Bachelor of Science, Keuka College, Management Science
Bachelor of Economics, Bachelor of Laws, Tianjin University of Science and Technology
Master of Laws, Nanjing Normal University

Professional Associations

Qualified to practice law in the People's Republic of China

Language Skills

Mandarin and English