

JIN, Hong (Cathryn)

Partner

Tel: +86 10 8540 8700
Fax: +86 10 8519 1350
E-mail: jinh@junhe.com

Practice Areas:

Private Equity/Venture Capital
Corporate and M&A
Outbound Investment

Professional Experience

Ms. Jin is a partner in JunHe's Beijing office and specializes in mergers and acquisitions, PE fund investments, cross-border M&A, foreign direct investments and general corporate. She has extensive experience in complex in-bound and out-bound M&A and PE fund investments and exits.

Ms. Jin joined JunHe in 2006. From 2011 to 2016 she worked in the Beijing office of Davis Polk & Wardwell. She joined Fangda Partners in 2016 and became a partner there. Ms. Jin re-joined JunHe in August 2018.

In more than fifteen years of legal practice, Ms. Jin has represented many PE funds in their investments, including IDG, L Catterton, CPE, Hillhouse, Temasek, Warburg Pincus, and TPG. She has also represented corporate clients including Wumart, Galaxy, Alluxio, mobike, Dmall and iQiyi, in their financings. Ms. Jin, as the deal counsel, represented Meituan in its merger with Dianping and represented mobike in its merger with Meituan. She also provided legal services to Beijing Universal Studio and other high-profile foreign direct investment projects.

Ms. Jin has been continuously recommended by IFLR 1000 as highly regarded lawyers in private equity investments (2023, 2024, 2025 and 2026) and by Legal 500 as recommended lawyers in private equity investments (2024). She has also exclusively contributed to the Chinese companies' governance article published on Aisa Business Law Journal.

Education

LL.M, New York University School of Law (Vanderbilt Scholar)
LL.M., Renmin University of China, School of Law
LL.B., Renmin University of China, School of Law

Professional Associations

Ms. Jin was admitted to the Bar in the PRC in 2006 and is currently a member of the All-China Bar Association. She is also admitted in New York State.

Language Skills

Mandarin (native) and English (fluent)