Professional Experience

Mr. Liu joined JunHe LLP in 2022 and is working from our Shanghai office.

Mr. Liu began to practice law in 1994. He is sophisticated in performing legal services in the areas of corporate shareholder withdrawal, real estate and state-owned asset protection, and has advised many government departments. He focuses on providing counseling and special legal services to his clients in order to help them prevent and avoid legal disputes. He attaches great importance to providing his clients with high-quality and efficient litigation and non-litigation legal services by virtue of teamwork and professionalism. In his 28 years of practice, Mr. Liu has won many litigation/arbitration cases in respect of land use right transfers, real estate cooperative development, construction projects, corporate investments and transfers of state-owned assets, and successfully dealt with corporate self-liquidation, corporate debt restructuring and corporate pre-restructuring projects.

Mr. Liu is the Executive Director of the All China Lawyers Association (ACLA), the Chairperson of the Company Law Professional Committee of the ACLA, the President of the Shanghai Association of Bankruptcy Administrators, and the Vice Chairperson of the Bankruptcy Law Research Council of the Shanghai Law Society (SLS). Mr. Liu was the 8th President of the Shanghai Bar Association.
