Professional Experience

Mr. Yiqian Qian practices law in the Capital Markets team in JunHe's Shanghai office. Before joining JunHe in 2015, he practiced at another boutique PRC law firm.

Mr. Qian has acted as the China legal counsel to the issuer or the sponsor (i.e. the underwriter) in various restructurings, onshore and offshore IPOs, and bond offerings of Chinese state-owned conglomerates, as well as those of high-growth companies. He has also represented onshore and offshore listed companies and their counterparties in the acquisition of listed companies, refinancing, substantial asset acquisitions and cross-border investments.

Mr. Qian has provided legal advice to well-known multinational companies, private equity funds and venture capital funds with regard to their mergers and acquisitions, private equity investments and venture capital investments in China. He has also acted as the China legal adviser to leading asset management companies in their project financing and structured financing deals.
