

WANG, Boyang

Partner

Tel: +86 29 8550 9666

E-mail: wangby@junhe.com

Practice Areas:

Dispute Resolution
Minerals, Resources and Environmental Protection
Tax Law

Professional Experience

Mr. Wang Boyang has been involved in the resolution of difficult and complicated commercial disputes since 2014 and has handled nearly 100 commercial litigation cases in the Supreme People's Court and provincial high courts, with a total subject amount of over RMB 10 billion. He has vast experience in litigation cases and has made outstanding achievements in related fields.

Mr. Wang focuses on the resolution of commercial disputes in mineral resources such as oil and coal and the new energy industry. He has rich experience in mining rights and equity transfers, mining rights contracting, cross-border exploration and exploitation, mining rights overlap, and compensation for damages in mine accidents. He has experience in coal mine mergers and integrations, collective coal mine restructuring disputes in the field of coal and other mineral resources and provides comprehensive legal services for oil and gas exploration and development. Mr. Wang also has experience in providing legal services relating to refining, pipeline transportation, trade, and retail business in the field of oil and natural gas and has provided legal services in new energy fields such as photovoltaics, wind power and hydrogen energy.

In complex credit and debt contract disputes and corporate businesses, especially equity transfer disputes and the struggle for the control rights of enterprises, Mr. Wang understands the business motives and decision-making mechanisms of all parties and can work out the most efficient and suitable dispute resolution strategies for business purposes.

In the administrative reconsideration and litigation involved in taxation, mining and real estate, Mr. Wang handles disputes in tax collection, administrative agreement, market supervision, the assignment and transfer of natural resource rights, the identification of idle land, and the payment of land prices, and has achieved outstanding results for his clients.

Mr. Wang has outstanding achievements in execution objection and execution objection litigation, as well as criminal and civil cross cases involving moral hazards for financial practitioners and special trade business.

He has served leading clients such as PetroChina, Sinopec, CHN Energy, China Huadian Corporation, China XD Group, China Construction Bank, Agricultural Bank of China, China Post, Shaanxi Yanchang Petroleum, Yanchang and Shell, CENN and other well-known enterprises and financial institutions.

Mr. Wang was selected in the list of the "Top 30 Chinese Lawyers by LEGALBAND in 2022".

Education

Mr. Wang graduated from China University of Political Science and Law with a Bachelor of Laws in 2014.

Professional Associations

Mr. Wang has obtained the lawyer's practice license in China.

Language Skills

Chinese, English