

WANG, Jiaqi

Tel: +86 21 2208 6224
Fax: +86 21 5298 5492
E-mail: wangjiaqi@junhe.com

Practice Areas:

Corporate and M&A
Capital Market

Professional Experience

Ms. Jiaqi Wang is based at JunHe's Shanghai office. Before joining JunHe she served as the sole legal director of a leading multinational corporation.

Specializing in cross-border investments, private equity/venture capital, general corporate matters and capital markets, Ms. Wang has extensive experience advising multinational corporations, investment funds, private enterprises, state-owned enterprises, and startups on strategic mergers & acquisitions, financing, and domestic/overseas listings. Her expertise spans industries including semiconductors, IT & high-tech, consumer goods, life sciences & healthcare, advanced manufacturing, and real estate. During her period as the sole legal director of a multinational company, she led high-profile cross-border M&A transactions and played a key role in post-merger business and operational integration.

With her experience across multiple sectors, a dual perspective from both law firm and in-house practices, and a thorough understanding of China's market dynamics and international norms, Ms. Wang is a sought-after legal advisor for complex cross-border transactions.

Education

LL.M., The George Washington University Law School

LL.B., Shanghai International Studies University School of Law

Professional Associations

Member of the All-China Bar Association

Member of the New York Bar Association

Language Skills

Mandarin, English, Cantonese