Professional Experience

Mr Ye (Tim) TIAN is a partner in JunHe's infrastructure and project finance team. Prior to joining JunHe, he practiced at a leading English law firm in the field of international construction for many years.

With his multi-faceted background in engineering and law, Chinese law and English law, Mr Ye (Tim) TIAN has been deeply involved in many large multinational corporations' offshore infrastructure "investment, financing, construction and operation" projects, and has taken the lead in the offshore infrastructure and energy and mining projects of China's state-owned enterprises under the "One Belt, One Road" policy. He has been advising leading international developers and contractors on a wide range of complex and high-value projects (with investment amounts ranging from hundreds of millions of RMB to billions of RMB) in Mainland China, Southeast Asia, the Middle East, Europe and Africa.

Mr Ye (Tim) TIAN also advises clients on court proceedings in China as well as local and international arbitrations before major arbitration institutions including the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC), the Beijing International Arbitration Centre (BAC), the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC) and the Indonesian National Arbitration Board (BANI), amongst others. His experience covers all types of construction disputes, including disputes relating to payment, valuation and surveying, delay and disruption, design and other professional liabilities, issues arising from defective works, termination of contracts, and enforcement of on-demand bonds.

Mr Ye (Tim) TIAN's expertise is widely recognised by clients and the industry, and he is a guest lecturer at Tsinghua University, the University of International Business and Economics, and Tianjin University. He has co-authored and published "Risk Management and Control of Chinese Enterprises' Overseas Investments and Contracted-Out Projects and Case Analysis" with a number of experts in the industry, which has been well received by the industry.

Mr Ye (Tim) TIAN has been selected as a recommended lawyer in the field of "Projects and Energy" by The Legal 500 and "Infrastructure" by Asia Legal Profiles for the period of 2023-2024.
